

MANHATTAN SONG BIRDS HERE

Mary Garden Greets Hammerstein—
Loves All American Men.

I love all American men.

Mary Garden, the new soprano of the Manhattan Opera House, stepped off the gangplank of the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria in Hoboken last evening at 10:30 o'clock, and threw herself into the arms of Oscar Hammerstein, kissing him violently on both cheeks. The volatile prima donna, of course, disarranged the inevitable silk hat of the impresario.

"I am so glad to be back in America," she cried, and turning to the group of men who were standing on the dock to welcome her she said: "I love all American men."
